

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 imposes a statutory duty on Flamefast Fire Systems Limited (the Company) to ensure, in so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of its employees whilst at work and others who may be affected by that work.

The Company's employees also have a duty to take care of themselves and others that may be affected by their acts or omissions.

To enable these duties to be carried out, it is the Company's intent to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled within the Company.

Therefore, the Company will, in so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that:

- Adequate resources, both financial and otherwise, are assigned to ensure the proper provision for health and safety at work
- Risk assessments are carried out and periodically reviewed
- Systems of work that are safe and without risks to health are established and followed
- Arrangements are made and complied with for the safe use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances for use at work
- Employees are provided with such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their safety and health at work and the safety of others who may be affected by their actions. Training will include; induction, work practices, plant and equipment training as necessary and any required to meet current legislation as it applies to our undertaking
- Where appropriate health surveillance will be provided for employees
- Plant and work equipment is provided and maintained in a safe condition and without risks to health
- Employees' working environment is safe and without risks to health and adequate arrangements is made for their welfare whilst at work
- Employees' place of work is safe and provided with adequate means of access and egress
- Investigate and record all accidents/incidents occurring at work and take reasonable action to prevent a reoccurrence. To keep regular statistics of all accidents/incidents and review areas where safety is possibly lacking
- Monitoring via inspections and audits are undertaken to maintain agreed standards
- Arrangements are in place for effective employee consultation regarding health, safety and welfare matters
- The Company employs a competent Health and Safety Manager to assist in applying the provisions of Health and Safety legislation
- The Health & Safety policy and procedures shall be reviewed at least annually in order to reflect any change in legislation or working practices and amended accordingly and the Company will strive to continually improve our EHS system and processes.

In addition to the above, the Company shall:

- Make the contents of this policy statement available to all employees and contractors via tool box talks
- Display policy documents on safety notice boards and include it within the Company's Safety Manual
- Make Safety Policy Documents available to Customers upon request

The Health & Safety Policy shall be reviewed at least annually or following significant legislative changes, where improvements have been identified it will be communicated to all staff and made available to visitors of the Company who may use the Company's premises and whom may request it.

Signature:

Date:

April 2018

Name:

Nigel Roddie

Position:

Managing Director